Let us read

I

Rama Natha was the son of a rich landlord. His father left him large tracts of land when he died. But Rama Natha did not spend even one day looking after his land. This was because he had a funny idea—he believed there was a magic potion that could turn any object into gold. He spent all his time to learn more about this potion. People cheated him often, promising to tell him about it, but he did not give up. His wife, Madhumati, was tired of this and also worried because she saw how much money Rama Natha was spending. She was sure that soon they would be without money.

One day, a famous sage called Mahipati came to their town. Rama Natha became his follower and asked him about the potion. To his surprise the sage answered, “Yes, in my travels in the Himalayas, I heard how you could make such a potion. But it is difficult.”

“Tell me!” requested Rama Natha, not believing his luck.

“You have to plant a banana plant and water it regularly with your hands. In winter, the morning dew is on the leaves. You have to collect the dew and store it in a bottle. When you have five litres of dew, bring it to me. I will chant some magic words, which will turn it into the magic potion. A drop of the potion will change any object into gold.”

large tracts of land: large areas of land

potion: a liquid with magical properties

give up: stop trying

dew: small drops of water on leaves that form during night

chant: to repeat or sing a word or phrase

Rama Natha was worried. “But winter is only for a few months. It will take me years to collect five litres of dew.”

“You can plant as many banana plants as you want. But remember, you must look after them yourself and collect the dew with your own hands.”

Let us discuss

1. What did Rama Natha believe?
2. How did the sage help Rama Natha?
3. Do you think Rama Natha will be able to collect the dew? Give a reason.

II

Rama Natha went home, and after talking to his wife started cleaning his large fields, which had been lying empty all these years. There he planted rows and rows of banana plants. He tended them carefully and during the winter months collected the dew that formed on them with great care. His wife helped him too. Madhumati gathered the banana crop, took it to the market and got a good price for it. Over the years, Rama Natha planted more and more plants and they had a huge banana plantation. At the end of six years, he finally had his five litres of dew.

looked after

Carefully, he took the bottle to the sage. The sage smiled and muttered something over the water. Then he returned the bottle and said, “Try it out.” Rama Natha sprinkled a few drops on a copper vessel and waited for it to turn to gold. To his surprise nothing happened!

“This is cheating,” he told the sage. “I have wasted six precious years of my life.”

But sage Mahipati only smiled and called Madhumati to come forward. She came with a big box. When she opened it, inside shined stacks of gold coins!

Now the sage turned to the very surprised Rama Natha and said, “There is no magic potion that can turn things into gold. You worked hard on your land and created this plantation. While you looked after the trees, your wife sold the fruits in the market. That’s how you got this money. It was your hard work that created this wealth, not magic. If I had told you about this earlier, you would have not listened to me, so I played a trick on you.”

Rama Natha understood the wisdom behind these words and worked even harder on his plantation from that day on.

SUDHA MURTY

muttered:
spoke in a low voice

precious:
valuable

wisdom: deep understanding

Let us discuss

1. Why was Rama Natha angry?
2. How did Rama Natha and Madhumati create wealth?

Let us think and reflect

I Read the following lines and answer the questions that follow.

*1. He spent all his time to learn about the magic potion. People cheated him often, promising to tell him about it, but he did not give up. (i) Complete the sentence with a suitable reason.

(ii) Read the column which shows 'what happened' and write the correct outcome in the next column.

What Happened	Outcome
A. People promised to tell Rama Natha about the magic potion.

I	eye
your	you're	short form of ‘you are’
dew	due	happening at some time in the future

The words given in each row of the table above have the same sounds but different spellings and meanings. Such words are called homophones.

Now, write the new sentences in your notebook.

5. Here are two sentences with letter 'b'.

Read them slowly the first time. As you read them a few more times, read them faster each time.

Bunty bhaiya bought a big bunch of bananas.

A big bunch of bananas was bought by Bunty bhaiya.

Now, try to create a tongue twister on your own and share it with your peers.

It is grown in South East Asia and Hawaii. These banana plants grow to a height of fifteen to twenty feet.

I We know that frogs croak. Did you know that ravens also croak?

II Which animal is shown to be cunning in stories? Circle the correct answer.

1. tiger      2. fox      3. bear

Let us read

Mr Raven was perched upon a limb,
 And Reynard the Fox looked up at him;
 For the Raven held in his great big beak,
 A morsel the Fox would go far to seek.

Said the Fox, in admiring tones: "My word!
 Sir Raven, you are a handsome bird.
 Such feathers! If you would only sing,
 The birds of these woods would call you King."

The Raven, who did not see the joke,
Forgot that his voice was just a croak.
He opened his beak, in his foolish pride—
And down fell the morsel the Fox had eyed.

“Ha-ha!” laughed the Fox. “And now you know,
Ignore sweet words that make you glow.
Pride, my friend, is rather unwise;
I’m sure this teaching is quite a surprise.”

THE RAVEN AND THE FOX

Dear students, the crow felt really sad because the fox cheated him. In the quiet night, the crow thought and said to himself, “I was fooled by kind words, but I’ve learned something important. Even if I don’t have beautiful feathers, I’m smart.”

To share his wisdom, he decided to go on a journey. He wanted to tell all the other animals to be careful with words. He told them, “Do not let pride lose what you have.”
